Slice two opposite ends off the grapefruit and make a hole to fit the size of a cock in the center. You can then slide your grapefruit a///// the way down to the base of the shaft. You've got yourself a juicy homemade fleshlight, baby! 🔦

Why not use it along with your mouth for an extra-succulent blowjob? 💦 Tastier for you, and tinglier for them!

With its resemblance to a pink vulva, grapefruit is also the perfect pre- or post-sex snack to feed to your playmate. 😊

Popsicles 🍧

Temperature play adds a whole other dimension to pleasure. 🧊

Be playful! Show off your oral skills with a popsicle and let your playmate watch in desire (and probably anticipation...). Swap the icy treat back and forth between your mouths during a racy makeout session. Share the taste of your tongues and the sweetness of the melting juice together, with added tingling from the coldness. 🧊👁️

You can send someone wild by taking turns between a juicy lolly and a throbbing cock. 🍆 Your frosty tongue will have them shaking and begging for more!

One of our horny members said: "I had a milf use ice cubes when she gave me head. It was the best." 🧊👁️ 💡 Top Tip: Some people can orgasm from nipple play alone! If your playmate has sensitive nipples, run the cold treat over their chest and leave them quivering.

If you want to get a bit more precision, frozen grapes are perfect. 🍇 Drag the stem slowly down your playmate's skin, leaving a shivering, wet residue along their hot body. 🥵💦 can try a carrot or a small banana. 🍌🥕 Just remember to keep hold of the end, or you might be in for an embarrassing visit to the ER! 🤡

💡 Safety Tip: Some fruits and veggies carry bacteria and microbes that are nasty for your nether-regions. A condom is a must.

Lots of you told us you ate the cucumber afterwards – you saucy devils. 😈

Whipped cream 🍦

Whipped cream is an ideal appetizer for oral. 😊 Lots of you said you'd played with whipped cream.

Squirt a trail of cream from your playmate's neck a///// the way down to their genitals, and use this trail as a pathway to the sweetest treat.

On your way down, cover your playmate's nipples with whipped cream, then use a range of sucking, licking, and nibbling to eat it off, like one of our horny members suggested. Don't stop there, though: using your breath and tongue on these sensitive areas will add a shivering, breezy sensation. 🌬️

Lots of sticky sweet food can be used for nipple play. Our members suggested honey (more on that below), chocolate sauce, or warm peanut butter. Always check allergies though! ⚠️

Just make sure you stick to sugar-free cream when it comes to vaginas, because the sugar can cause pH imbalances and lead to yeast infections. That's not sexy! 🚫

🔍 Sex Definition – Sloshing: Wet and messy sex play. Go on, splash that whipped cream onto a clean surface and sit on it

Makeout sessn. ♥ Just make sure you check for nut allergies first! 🍪

Hey, and if you're into BDSM, %% you can use the rest of that chocolate or nutella to reward your Sub for their good behavior. 😊

For maximum aphrodisiac effect, use dark chocolate – it has a higher concentration of cocoa beans! One of our horny members suggested sharing something indulgent in the bedroom as a way to connect more deeply and celebrate each other's company. 🥳

Honey 🍯

Play a game of hide and seek on your playmate's skin with this sticky syrup. Get them to softly drip it somewhere on their body while you slip on a blindfold, then explore every part of their trembling skin until you find that sweet treat. 🍷 Bon appetit!

💡 Top Tip: Honey is also remarkable for libido – it's rich in B vitamins, which are needed for testosterone production. Plus, the high fructose provides a slow and steady release of energy to aid stamina. 🐱

As our saucy members suggested, you can use the naked body as a plate, and then lick them all over once you're done. 😊

Cleaning up 🧼

Listen, food in the bedroom isn't for everyone – and that's okay! As one of you put it: "I'd rather taste the person I'm with." 🍷 Another member suggested saving the edible treats until after sex – replenish your nutrients, and give yourself an energy boost on the comedown. ⚡
